

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

Programme outcome, course outcome and learning outcome

Learning outcome

- To acquaint the students with basic concepts of public, corporate and rural economics, business and managerial economics
- To acquaint theories that helps students to understand consumers and producer behaviours.
- To learn the analytical frame work of business and management concepts and its approach applied to various field
- To understand the role of state and public sector in economic development
- To understand key issues of rural development of the country, Karnataka economy role of corporate sector and HRM.
- To help students who want to take civil exams

Course outcome

- To understand how business and managerial concepts and tools their influence on individual and on economy
- To learn about the importance of public economics, corporate economics, Karnataka economics, HRM, and rural development, business and managing economies
- Apply with economic reasoning to individual and firm behaviour
- Critical understanding the various concepts of economics and its applications
- Plotting numerical into graphical representation of many concepts of economics
- To understand the tenants of generation of state revenue, tax, expenditure and budget
- To understand the role and importance of rural development, corporate culture and Karnataka economy

Economics I-business economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To know the role of business economics how it is applicable to present days- its decision making, forward planning and its responsibilities• By knowing business field-how it effects on demand and supply its change in demand forecasting• It also help us to know about producers behaviour on production, cost and revenue
Economics II-managerial economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Role of managerial aspects in very importance in present days particularly in profit, price methods• We have to know different markets of economics how production and price are decided

Economic III- monetary economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The origin of money, role of money and demand for money and supply of money has to be known to students • Role of banks , functions of banks , changes adopted by banks to the present days is very necessary • Central bank and its policy are very important to study.
Economics VI-public economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To have the knowledge about various concepts tools and issue in public economics • To understand the characteristics of goods tax, public expenditure and public debt. • To focus on understanding the key issues relating to fiscal policy and budget analysis
Economics V- Corporate economics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To understand about the present corporate sector and corporate management, and the importance of the corporate business houses in economic development of the countries • To consents of HRM, recruitment and risk management should be known to the students • The role of MNC's and their importance and problem and at the same point India corporate houses- growth contribution, their problems, and their corporate social responsibility to be learnt
Economics VI-rural development and co-operation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We have to understand the basic needs of rural development, its issues, poverty alleviation programmes. • Role of agriculture, water management, social forestry, small scale and cottage industries are important contribution for rural development • Agriculture credit is needed for rural population. source and role of credit institutions are to be importantly studied • At the same time role of co-operation and non-agriculture cooperative institutions should be understood for achievement of rural development of the country

Economics VII-economics of human resources management	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The role and responsibility of HRM , planning and job analysis are important to study in present day • Today's recruitment, training for human resource has to be known to everybody so they can be prepared to face it. • We should also know about our human rights declaration and its issue in human rights
Economics VIII- Karnataka economy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It is very essential to know our state that is Karnataka economy's feature, geography, population, migration aspects. • What are the programmes introduced by government to solve the problems of poverty , unemployment and regional imbalances in the state • Contribution and problem of agriculture, marketing financing water management to be studied • We have to know the industrial policy of government , growth , problems, sources of industrial finance technology and , information, energy sector transportation and communication • To focus on understanding the key issues relating to public finance of Karnataka.